

For a Severe loss to the Enemy, but None Killed of the Americans; but Several Severly Wounded; And Amongst that Number was Capt Chambliss Who Severly Wounded in the right arm by an Indian Arrow said Capt Chambliss continued to command his Company With the Arrow still in his arm Until the fight was over and the Enemy compellitly runtin that he Rives With others assisting him cut out the Barb of the arrow Which Was a terrible operation and the Wound Was a very severe one The horses that belonged to the Said Williams being so much jaded ~~and~~ that it became necessary for the Company to return; but Capt Chamblis said that he Was determined to pursue the Enemy as long as his Animals could hold out, notwithstanding his severe wound The above engagement Took place in the Month of Febru ary 1836 The Said Chambliss states that he after effecting what he coule With said Enemy, he then intended to make his Way to San Antonio
